

Mr. Larry Oguego

National Coordinator, Human Rights Volunteer Corps of Nigeria (HRVC)

Larry Oguego, is a passionate Human Development Consultant who believes that the fastest way to transform a nation is to transform the people and the institutions. He is a well-known youth mentor and founder of the Life Coach Project and Human Rights Volunteer Corps.

He has spoken on human rights and national transformation within and outside Nigeria. He has also partnered the Nigeria Medical Association (N.M.A.) in conducting training on the rights of patients and doctors and was a guest speaker on the National Association of Resident Doctors (NARD) National Conference in 2016.

He has keen interest in promoting the rights of patients, doctors and other health workers. Larry is a certified trainer for the Institute for National Transformation (INT) and has worked for the institute in different countries.

He runs several radio programs to enlighten Nigerians on human right and national transformation issues.